

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Barrington Police Department is comprised of 24 sworn police officers and 6 civilian men and women who are dedicated to preserving the rights, property, safety and dignity of the people of this community. Additional police services can be found through the department's home webpage of www.barringtonpolice.org. Since the website's inception in May 2003, almost 46,000 visitors have queried the website seeking information on the specialized services and important forms that the department provides to the community. In today's age of internet accessibility, this is one way the Department provides quicker information to the community.

UNIFORM DIVISION

As result of recent retirements, the Barrington Police Department proudly announced the promotions of Officer Gino Caputo and Detective Joseph D. Andreozzi to the rank of Uniform Sergeant. In March, Officer Michael J. Gregorzek joined the police force as the newest police recruit. Officer Wes McCoy is seen above at the department's yearly pistol qualifications. Below are some of the department's Bike Patrol members.

Shown from left to right are Sgt. Gino Caputo, Sgt. Timothy Harrington, Officer Kristy Viveiros, Sgt. Kevin Igoe, and Sgt. Joseph Andreozzi.

DETECTIVE DIVISION

Detective Lt. Dino DeCrescenzo and Sgt. Joseph Andreozzi are assigned to the department's Detective Division. During FY-08, detectives investigated hundreds of cases involving larcenies, sexual assaults, banking and credit card fraud offenses, narcotic possessions, burglaries and house breaks, and performed fingerprinting.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

In an effort to enhance the department's Community Policing efforts, police officers and detectives have engaged in over 964 community contacts with residents and town businesses. RAD

Training is offered by Officer Dianne Pinto who provides a four day safety instruction course for adults and youth under the age of 12. Self-defense techniques are learned if confronted by a stranger. Bike Safety

Day with the Bristol County Elks Lodge took place on June 13th, 2009 on the Bike Path at Shaws Super Market. Over 65 bicycles were registered with the police department and members of the department helped adjust helmets for parents and kids. Over 16 new helmets were given away and two bicycles donated by the Elks Club. Approximately 300 cyclists stopped by for information, a drink or a quick hot dog and hamburger. Officer John Sgagliardich properly adjusts a bike safety helmet for a youth.

